

The Leopard's Spots

As the Donald makes his "pivot" on immigration, and begins to take a more Jeb Bush view of the world, we wonder if the diehard loonies are going to drop away from supporting the Donald. One can assume that the "nod and a wink" was delivered to the brown shirts by the Donald's surrogates, but there may be some potential Trump voters that didn't get the memo. In case the Donald's new policy is unclear, let me assure you, he's just kidding. Like asking Russia to hack America's email accounts, the Donald is just being 'sarcastic'. Don't worry white supremacists, this leopard hasn't changed his spots, or hair color.
