

Ahh The Good Old Days

Alt-Right, sounds kind of like Ctrl-Alt-Delete, which is what you do when your computer is so totally fouled up that the only thing you can do is force a reboot. My guess is that the Alt-Right people feel that a reboot of society is what is needed, and what they expect from their candidates. Aaaahh, if we could just go back to those halcyon days of the 1850's when the black were slaves, women couldn't vote, and Mexico was being annexed into the states of Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and California. What a bunch of morons.
