

Orlando Shooting

Well, clearly something in the Florida water is causing the crazies to run amok now.

Yesterday a singer, today fifty innocents in a bar.

I know the NRA is going to say it was a person that killed the innocents, not the gun. It's just that the gun made it so much more easy to do.

It would be interesting to see if Disney is strong enough to take on the gun lobby.

Boycott Epcot until the NRA backs down.
